Your issues

Bulgaria joined the European Union on 1 January 2007. For businesses, EU enlargement has brought fresh opportunities and a new marketplace in which to develop. EU membership had an immediate impact in the field of taxation. Complex issues have arisen in relation to the application of the EU legislation and court practice. Specialists at PricewaterhouseCoopers Bulgaria can offer a range of tax services to help you optimise the opportunities for your business while complying with the complex and evolving legislation. We can deliver long-term value and success to your business.

Our people

PricewaterhouseCoopers is the largest tax practice in Bulgaria, with many years of local experience and a client portfolio consisting of leading companies. Our practice provides a comprehensive range of tax services across all fields of business. We provide more than simply tax advice; we devise complete business solutions by combining our professional skills, working together with PricewaterhouseCoopers' assurance and advisory professionals and attorneys-at-law from Landwell Bulgaria.

Our services

Our specialists provide assistance with corporate tax services, including tax structuring and compliance and mergers and acquisitions; indirect tax services, including VAT and customs and excise duties; international assignment solutions, including visas and immigration, income tax consulting and compliance and employment law advice; and post-EU accession solutions.
