

AerGen buys four narrowbodies

Joe Kavanagh

10/08/2015

AerGen Aviation Finance, a mid-life aircraft lessor established in January 2015, announced the purchase of four narrowbodies last week.

The four aircraft are on lease to Virgin America, Monarch Airlines, Tame and South African Airways.

AerGen could not immediately be reached for more comment on the deal.

In January this year, AerGen raised an initial \$200 million of committed equity capital from a group of financial and strategic investors led by Greenbriar Equity Group LLC. The lessor focusses on mid-life aircraft.
