Irish financial technology company Fexco has named Gerry Hastings CEO of its new aviation unit.

Headquartered in Shannon, Ireland, with an office in Dublin, Fexco Aviation Services will perform cash management, administration and accounting services for aviation related businesses. It will also provide managing agent services for aircraft- and engine-owning vehicles in the asset-backed securitisation (ABS) sector.

Gerry Hastings has held finance roles at GPA, GECAS and AerCap. He joins Fexco after 11 years as managing director of Phoenix American Financial Services, a provider of administration and financial services to the aviation ABS sector.
