Lessor Jackson Square Aviation (JSA) has announced several new leadership roles and promotions.

Mathew Adamo was named chief investment officer (CIO) in addition to his role as executive vice-president and head of capital markets.

Daniel McGrath was named head of EMEA marketing and John Yanney was appointed head of Americas marketing and OEM relations.

As previously reported, Michael Hazelton is the new head of trading.

"We are delighted to announce well-deserved promotions for this dynamic group, who will be instrumental in helping JSA continue to grow its product offering and market presence," said JSA president and chief commercial officer Chris Dailey.

The US-based leasing company has a portfolio of approximately 160 Airbus and Boeing aircraft, mostly narrowbodies.
