Japanese bank-backed SMBC Aviation Capital has promoted Cora McCormack to the role of executive vice-president (EVP) EMEA.

McCormack will lead the company's customer relationship and business development across the wider EMEA region.

She has worked at the lessor for over 15 years, previously serving as SVP airline marketing for the EMEA since 2016, responsible for originating off-balance sheet aircraft financing and leasing transactions for airline customers in the region.

She worked at RBS Aviation Capital as an aircraft delivery and fundings manager between 2005 and 2008, prior to Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation's acquisition of RBS Aviation Capital in 2012.

In this role she was responsible for management of the funding and deliveries function for operating lease, debt transactions and asset sell downs within the company.

McCormack also worked as a portfolio manager at Rand Merchant Bank.
