Jackson Square Aviation (JSA) has promoted Jack Diskin to the position of senior vice president (SVP), head of risk.

Diskin joined JSA in 2023 as VP risk. He previously worked at Avolon as a credit risk analyst monitoring Southeast Asia and Australasia.

Prior to that he was an aviation analyst at Goodbody, working as the lead analyst on Lufthansa and Air France-KLM and co-analyst on Ryanair, Easyjet, Wizz and IAG, as well as coverage of aircraft lessors.

“Since joining the company, Jack has worked on a series of successful transactions, some complex in nature, and has always impressed us with his progressive approach. We are excited for the next phase of his career as he takes the helm and steers our risk team forward,” commented Kevin McDonald, JSA’s chief executive officer.
